The attention of the farmer is called to the tobacco card of Kendrick & Runyon, proprietors of the Central Tobacco Warehouse Clarksville, Tenn. which appears in this issue. The gentlemen composing the firm are well known to the farmers and it would be useless to add that they enjoy a liberal patronage, as the Kentuckian published from time to time throughout last season, their heavy sales. Watch their sales this year.

With a better understanding of the The state of the s transient nature of the many phys-Mr. W. R. Peal, the well known solicitor for Wooldridge & Chappell, tobacco warehousemen, is very sick with an attack of paralysis. His condition was at one time so alarming that his wife, who had been visiting in Paducab, was telegraphed, and is organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its bene-nicial effects, to note when you pur-chase, that you have the genuine arti-cle, which is manufactured by the Cali fornia Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Daisy, the Missouri Girl. To an audience numbering fully one thousand at the Lowry Opera House last evening, that excellent company, The Sadie Raymond Com-edy Co. presented 'Daisy, the Mis-souri Girl," in a most creditable manner. The play was written especially for this company and the parts could not have been more fitted to the players than they are. Each one seemed cut out for his or her particuar part, and the audience laughed to stop them? till it cried, at the ludicrous. green sayings and countryfied actions of "Zeke and Daisy," the typical Missourians from old Missouri.
